

Characteristics of Life

Name _____

Class Period __ Date _____

1. A CAR has many of the characteristics of life but is not alive, fill in the chart below showing ways a car is and is not life-like.

Traits a car shares with living things:	Traits of life that DO NOT apply to a car:
1.	1.
2.	2.
Additional ideas?	Additional ideas?

2. If something responds to its environment, does it have to be alive? Why or why not? Give an example to make your point.
3. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of life?
A. reproduction B. made of cells
C. movement D. response to the environment
4. Explain your answer to #3.

Characteristics of Life

Name _____

Class Period __ Date _____

1. A CAR has many of the characteristics of life but is not alive, fill in the chart below showing ways a car is and is not life-like.

Traits a car shares with living things:	Traits of life that DO NOT apply to a car:
1.	1.
2.	2.
Additional ideas?	Additional ideas?

2. If something responds to its environment, does it have to be alive? Why or why not? Give an example to make your point.
3. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of life?
A. reproduction B. made of cells
C. movement D. response to the environment
4. Explain your answer to #3.

Is it Alive? What's the evidence?

Name _____

Class Period __ Date _____

Observation	Inference
Definition:	Definition:
Observations of your object:	Inferences about your object:

Conclusion— was your object once alive? Why or why not?

Is it Alive? What's the evidence?

Name _____

Class Period __ Date _____

Observation	Inference
Definition:	Definition:
Observations of your object:	Inferences about your object:

Conclusion— was your object once alive? Why or why not?